APPEAL BY PRISONER

A prisoner against whom punishment is adjudged by a city court may appeal to the circuit court of the county, within thirty (30) days after the judgment. If the prisoner, within the thirty (30) days, enters into recognizance for his appearance in court and causes to be filed in the court, within forty-five (45) days, all other papers, documents, and transcripts necessary to complete his appeal, then the appeal stays all further proceedings on the judgment in the court below. However, the prisoner may remain in jail on his sentence instead of furnishing a recognizance and an appeal within recognizance does not stay the execution of the court below. [IC 33-10.1-5-9]

APPEAL IN CIVIL ACTION - BOND - CHANGE OF VENUE

A party in a civil action who desires to take an appeal from the city court of a second-class city in a county having three (3) or more second-class cities shall file a bond, to the approval of the city court, within thirty (30) days from the date of rendition of final judgment, and the motion to correct errors within ten (10) days after the rendition of final judgment. The transcript and motion shall be filed in the court to which the appeal is taken within thirty (30) days after the motion has been signed by the court.

All errors saved shall be reviewed as far as justice warrants, and for that purpose, a complete transcript of all the evidence is not required. An error occurring during the trial, not excepted to at the time, may be made available upon appeal by setting it forth in a motion for a new trial. Upon application within the time fixed, either of the parties to the suit may obtain either a correct statement, to be prepared by the party requesting the signing of the same, of the facts in a narrative from appearing upon the trial and of all questions of law involved in the case and the decisions of the court upon the questions of law, or a correct stenographic report, and the expense of procuring the same shall be paid by the party requesting the same.

The appeal shall be submitted upon the date filed in the court to which the appeal is taken, shall be advanced upon the docket of that court, and shall be determined at the earliest practical date, without any extension of time for filing of briefs, but the court to which appeal is taken may, on application, hear oral arguments.

If judgment is affirmed on appeal, it may be increased by ten percent (10%), if the appeal is found to be frivolous, in addition to any interest that may be allowed.

A change of venue may be taken from the judge to which the cause is appealed as provided by law for taking changes of venue from the judge of the circuit court.

The court to which appeal is taken shall render its opinion in abbreviated form by simply citing the controlling authorities in the case, unless it appears that some new question of practice, procedure, or law is involved that would warrant a more extensive opinion. [IC 33-10.1-5-10]

UNCLAIMED MONEY OVER FIVE YEARS OLD

All items that can be legally disbursed should be paid immediately to the person or persons entitled thereto. All fees and funds five or more years old, including old outstanding checks, should be scheduled on forms provided by the Attorney General and paid over to him as required by IC 32-34-1-20(c)(5). They should not be allowed to accumulate beyond the five year anniversary date of issue.

DEPOSIT OF FUNDS

All funds collected by a city or town court shall be deposited not later than the business day following the receipt of funds in depositories selected by the city or town as provided in an ordinance adopted by the city or town. [IC 5-13-6-1(d)]

All funds should be deposited in the same form in which they were received.

MONTHLY RECONCILEMENTS

Financial records of a city or town court shall be reconciled with the balance statements provided by the respective depository (or depositories) at least monthly. [IC 5-13-6-1(e)]

OPTICAL IMAGES OF CHECKS

IC 5-13-6-3(a) authorizes financial institutions to provide optical images of checks in lieu of the actual canceled checks. However, IC 26-2-8-111(e) requires such optical images to contain the information on both the front and back of the checks.

BANK/CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS TO CITY AND TOWN COURTS

The clerk of a city or town court may contract with a bank or credit card vendor for acceptance of bank or credit cards in payment of bail, fines, civil penalties, court fees and costs, or fees for the preparation, duplication, or transmission of documents. However, if there is a vendor transaction charge, or discount fee, whether billed to the clerk or charged directly to the clerk's account, the clerk may collect a fee from the person using the bank or credit card.

The court clerk shall forward credit card service fees collected to the city or town fiscal officer. These fees may be used without appropriation to pay transaction charges or discount fees charged by the bank or credit card vendor. [IC 33-19-6.5) Two laws dealing with banks or credit cards were passed in 2003. The last law signed contained the above-mentioned language.

ORDINANCE VIOLATIONS COSTS – WHEN DEFENDANT IS NOT LIABLE

The defendant is not liable for any ordinance violation costs fee in an action in which:

- (1) the defendant was charged with an ordinance violation subject to IC 33-6-3;
- (2) the defendant denied the violation under IC 33-6-3-2;

- (3) proceedings in court against the defendant were initiated under IC 34-28-5 (or IC 34-4-32 before its repeal); and
- (4) the defendant was tried and the court entered judgment for the defendant for the violation. [IC 33-19-5-2(d)]

Such cases should be designated as Case Class Code O E.

OLD OUTSTANDING CHECKS NOT RETURNED

In order to eliminate old outstanding checks from the records, the court should perform the following:

1. Issue a formal stop payment order to the bank upon which each check is drawn.
2. Enter the amount of each check as a receipt in the cash book. Post the respective amounts to the trust column of the cash book and enter each amount in the name of the payee in the register of trust funds.
3. Since the checks have never cleared the bank, the amount is still on deposit. Therefore, when all such checks are charged to the records and reinstated in the trust register, the original check number will be eliminated as outstanding in the next reconciliation with the bank.
4. If, at the time such checks are restored to the records, the original dates indicate the checks have been outstanding for five or more years, they should be paid over to the Attorney General immediately. The original date should be shown in the register of trust funds. If the checks are not five years old they should be held until the five year period has elapsed.

The entry in the cash book should be:

"Old Outstanding Check No. _____ issued _____ Date _____, to (Name) _____," and extend the amounts to the total and trust fund columns.

Since outstanding checks of the court are not included within the meaning of IC 5-11-10.5, city and town courts are to follow the preceding steps in handling old outstanding checks.

PETTY CASH FUND

As provided by IC 36-1-8-3, the fiscal body of a political subdivision may establish a petty cash fund for the purpose of paying small or emergency items of operating expense. A receipt shall be taken for each and every expenditure from such fund and an accounts payable voucher shall be filed by the custodian of the fund, to reimburse such fund for expenditures so made. No reimbursement shall be made unless there is attached to the accounts payable voucher receipts totaling the amount so claimed. Such reimbursement shall be approved, allowed and paid in the same manner as other accounts payable vouchers. The amount of the fund shall be established by the fiscal body of the political subdivision.

CASH CHANGE FUND

The establishment of cash change fund is recommended for each department of a city or town collecting licenses, fees, utility service charges or any other cash revenues. The authority for such fund is IC 36-1-8-2. The fiscal body of the political subdivision must authorize the establishment of the cash change fund.

An accounts payable voucher should be filed by the officer or employee who is charged with the duty of collected the cash revenues for the amount deemed necessary for presentation to the proper board. The amount of the fund must be established by the fiscal body. The accounts payable voucher should contain a statement regarding the necessity for such fund together with the statutory reference authorizing its establishment.

COMPUTER OUTPUT

Public records, financial statement information and supporting information generated through a computer system should be printed out on paper, printed to disk or maintained on line at the end of each reporting year and retained for audit. Information must be maintained in a manner that will allow access for audit and public inquiry on equipment of the governmental unit.

CONDITION OF RECORDS

At all times, the manual and computerized records, subsidiary ledgers, control ledger, and reconciled bank balance should agree. If the reconciled bank balance is less than the subsidiary or control ledgers, then the responsible official or employee may be held personally responsible for the amount needed to balance the fund.

INVESTMENT OF COSTS AND FEES DUE STATE

The State's portion of court costs, along with the State fees which are sent directly to the Auditor of State, may be invested by the Court Clerk while awaiting transmittal to the State. Such investments would be limited to those permitted under IC 5-13-9.

The interest earned should be receipted to the city or town general fund. Since the city or town court budget is a department within the general fund budget, it is possible that (with common council or town council approval) the interest income generated could be taken into consideration when reviewing the court's requirements during the annual budget process.

REFUNDS, NSF CHECKS, PARTIAL PAYMENTS

Each court should establish written guidelines on how to handle refunds and NSF checks. Such policy should also address whether the court will accept partial payments of the court costs, fines, and fees which are due.

AUDIT COSTS

Audit costs incurred because of theft and shortage may be the personal obligation of the responsible official or employee.

Audit costs or other costs incurred because of poor records, nonexistent records or other inadequate bookkeeping practices may be the personal obligation of the responsible official or employee of the governmental unit.

Any outside audit costs paid, not authorized by statute, may be considered a duplication of service and an unnecessary expense. These payments may be the personal obligation of the responsible official or employee.

INTERNAL CONTROLS

Governmental units should have internal controls in effect which provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial information and records, effectiveness and efficiency of operations, proper execution of management's objectives, and compliance with laws and regulations. Among other things, segregation of duties, safeguarding controls over cash and all other assets and all forms of information processing are necessary for proper internal control.

Controls over the receipting, disbursing, recording, and accounting for the financial activities are necessary to avoid substantial risk of invalid transactions, inaccurate records and financial statements and incorrect decision making.

BAIL BONDS AND BAIL PROCEDURES

The court may admit the defendant to bail and impose any of the following conditions to assure the defendant's appearance at any stage of the legal procedures:

1. Require the defendant to execute a bail bond with sufficient solvent sureties or to deposit cash or securities in an amount equal to the bail, or to execute a bond secured by real estate in the county, where thirty-three hundredths (.033) of the true tax value less encumbrances is at least equal to the amount of the bail, or to post a real estate bond. The defendant must also pay the special death benefit fee.
2. Require the defendant to execute a bail bond by depositing cash or securities with the clerk of the circuit court, in an amount not less than ten percent (10%) of the bail. A portion of this deposit, not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the monetary value of the deposit or fifty dollars ($50.00), whichever is the lesser amount, may be retained as an administrative fee. If the defendant is convicted, the court may retain all or part of the cash or securities to pay fines, costs, fees, or restitution, if ordered by the court.
3. Impose reasonable restrictions on the activities, movements, associations, and residence of the defendant during the period of release.
4. Require the defendant to refrain from any direct or indirect contact with an individual.
5. Place the defendant under reasonable supervision of a probation officer or other appropriate public official.

6. Release the defendant into the care of some qualified person or organization responsible for supervising the defendant and assisting the defendant in appearing in court.
7. Release the defendant on personal recognizance where the defendant shows little risk or non-appearance.
8. Impose any other reasonable restrictions designed to assure the defendant's appearance in court. [IC 35-33-8-3.2]

CLERK'S RECORD PERPETUATION FUND

Each Clerk of a City or Town Court shall establish a Clerk's Record Perpetuation Fund. The Clerk shall deposit in the fund all: (1) revenue received by the Clerk for the transmitting of documents by facsimile machine to a person under IC 5-14-3; and (2) document storage fees required under IC 33-19-6-18.1.

Such fees are to be remitted by the Court to the City or Town fiscal officer at the end of each month.

The Clerk of a City or Town Court may use the money in the fund for the preservation of records and the improvement of record keeping systems and equipment. The fund would require appropriation. [IC 33-19-6-1.5]

DRUG COURT

A city court having felony, misdemeanor, or juvenile jurisdiction in a city may establish a drug court under the court's operation. Such drug courts may provide certain intervention, treatment and rehabilitation services. A new drug court must be approved by the Indiana Judicial Center and any drug court in operation before July 1, 2002, must be certified by the Indiana Judicial Center. The Indiana Judicial Center regulates such courts. The cost of a drug court may be supplemented out of the city general fund and may be further supplemented by payment from the city user fee fund.

A drug court may apply for and receive gifts, grants, bequests and other forms of financial assistance approved by the court to supplement the court's budget. A city court that has established a drug court may require an eligible individual to pay a fee for drug court services not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). The clerk of a city court shall remit such fees monthly to the city fiscal officer for deposit in the city user fee fund. [IC 12-23-14.5]

A drug court that does not otherwise have felony jurisdiction may accept an eligible individual who is referred to the drug court from another court within the county if the following criteria are met:

1. The drug court returns the case to the court that made the referral for appropriate proceedings when the person has successfully completed drug court or the person's participation in the drug court has been terminated.
2. If the drug court is a city or town court, the person selected as judge for the court is required to be an attorney under IC 33-10.1-5-7. [IC 12-23-14.5-3]

3. Suspend the person's driver's license for up to thirty (30) days.

ADULT PROBATION

Whenever it places a person on probation, the court shall:

- (1) specify in the record the conditions of the probation; and
- (2) advise the person that if the person violates a condition of probation during the probationary period, a petition to revoke probation may be filed before the earlier of the following:
 - (A) One (1) year after the termination of probation.
 - (B) Forty-five (45) days after the state receives notice of the violation.

In addition, if the person was convicted of a felony and is placed on probation, the court shall order the person to pay to the probation department the user's fee prescribed under IC 35-38-2-1(c). If the person was convicted of a misdemeanor, the court may order the person to pay the user's fee prescribed under IC 35-38-2-1(d). The court may:

- (1) modify the conditions (except a fee payment may only be modified as provided in IC 35-38-2-1.7(b); or
- (2) terminate the probation;

at any time. If the person commits an additional crime, the court may revoke the probation.

If a clerk of a court collects a probation user's fee, the clerk:

- (1) may keep not more than three percent (3%) of the fee to defray the administration costs of collecting the fee and shall deposit any fee kept under this subsection in the clerk's record perpetuation fund established under IC 33-19-6-1.5; and
- (2) if requested to do so by the county auditor, city fiscal officer, or town fiscal officer under class (A), (B), or (C), transfer not more than three percent (3%) of the fee to the:
 - (A) county auditor, who shall deposit the money transferred under this subdivision into the county general fund;
 - (B) city general fund when requested by the city fiscal officer; or
 - (C) town general fund when requested by the town fiscal officer.

In addition to any other conditions of probation, the court shall order each person convicted of a felony to pay:

- (1) not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) as an initial probation user's fee;
- (2) a monthly probation user's fee of not less than fifteen dollars ($15) nor more than thirty dollars ($30) for each month that the person remains on probation;
- (3) the costs of the laboratory test or series of tests to detect and confirm the presence of the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) antigen or antibodies to the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) if such tests are required by the court under IC 35-38-2-2.3;
- (4) an administrative fee of one hundred dollars ($100);

to either the probation department or the clerk.

In addition to any other conditions of probation, the court may order each person convicted of a misdemeanor to pay:

- (1) not more than fifty dollars ($50) initial probation user's fee;
- (2) a monthly probation user's fee of not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than twenty dollars ($20) for each month that the person remains on probation;

- (4) an administrative fee of fifty dollars ($50);

to either the probation department or the clerk.

The probation department or clerk shall collect the administrative fee under subsection (4) before collecting any other fee. All money collected by the probation department or the clerk of a city or town court under this section shall be transferred to the fiscal officer of the city or town for deposit into the local supplemental adult probation services fund. The fiscal body of the city or town shall appropriate money from the local supplemental adult probation services fund to the city or town court of the city or town for the court's use in providing probation services to adults or for the court's use for other purposes as may be appropriated by the fiscal body. Money may be appropriated only to those city or town courts that have an adult probation services program. If a city or town court does not have such a program, the money collected by the probation department must be transferred to the county treasurer.

The local supplemental adult probation services fund may be used only to supplement probation services and to supplement salaries for probation officers. A supplemental probation services fund may not be used to replace other funding of probation services. Any money remaining in the fund at the end of the year does not revert to any other fund but continues in the local supplemental adult probation services fund.

A person placed on probation for more than one (1) crime:

- (1) may be required to pay more than one (1) initial probation user's fee; and
- (2) may not be required to pay more than one (1) monthly probation user's fee per month; to the probation department or the clerk.

In a city or town located in Elkhart County, any money remaining in the local supplemental adult probation services fund at the end of the local fiscal year may be appropriated by the city or town fiscal body to the city or town court for use by the court for purposes determined by the fiscal body.

In addition to other methods of payment allowed by law, a probation department may accept payment of fees by credit card (as defined in IC 14-11-1-7). The liability for payment is not discharged until the probation department receives payment or credit from the institution responsible for making the payment or credit.

The probation department may contract with a bank or credit card vendor for acceptance of bank or credit cards. However, if there is a vendor transaction charge or discount fee, whether billed to the probation department or charged directly to the probation department's account, the probation department may collect a credit card service fee from the person using the bank or credit card. The fee collected is a permitted additional charge to the money the probation department is required to collect.

The probation department shall forward the credit card service fees collected to the city or town fiscal officer. These funds may be used without appropriation to pay the transaction charge or discount fee charged by the bank or credit card vendor. [IC 35-38-2-1]

A person may pay a monthly probation user's fee under IC 35-38-2-1 or IC 35-38-2-1.5 before the date the payment is required to be made without obtaining the prior approval of a court or a probation department. However, if the person is discharged from probation before the date the person was scheduled to be released from probation, any monthly probation user's fee paid in advance by the person may not be refunded.

A probation department may petition a court to:

- (1) impose a probation user's fee on a person; or
- (2) increase a person's probation user's fee;

if the financial ability of the person to pay a probation user's fee changes while the person is on probation.

An order to pay a probation user's fee under section 1 or 1.5 of this chapter:

- (1) is a judgment lien that:
 - (A) attaches to the property of the person subject to the order;
 - (B) may be perfected;
 - (C) may be enforced to satisfy any payment that is delinquent; and
 - (D) expires;in the same manner as a judgment lien created in a civil proceeding;
- (2) is not discharged by the completion of the person's probationary period or other sentence imposed on the person; and
- (3) is not discharged by the liquidation of a person's estate by a receiver under IC 32-30-5.

If a court orders a person to pay a probation user's fee, the court may garnish the wages, salary, and other income earned by the person to enforce the order.

If:

- (1) a person is delinquent in paying the person's probation user's fees required; and
- (2) the person's driver's license or permit has been suspended or revoked or the person has never been issued a driver's license or permit; the court may order the bureau of motor vehicles to not issue a driver's license or permit to the person until the person has paid the person's delinquent probation user's fees. [IC 35-38-2-1.7]
